In Memoriam

Georgia Dunn, O.S.F.

1898—1975

Doctor of Letters Award—Commencement 1970

"A teacher affects eternity, he can never tell where his influence stops." These words from THE EDUCATION OF HENRY ADAMS might have been written as a twelve-word profile of the life and influence of Sister M. Georgia Dunn, O.S.F., Dean Emeritus of Rosary Hill College.

Sister Georgia devoted her life to teaching, serving in elementary and high schools before coming to Rosary Hill in 1949 as academic dean and dean of students. For many years administrative duties demanded much of her attention, but always she found time for the teaching she loved. Sister Georgia served as Professor of English at Rosary Hill College until 1971.

A graduate of Canisius College, she received her Doctor of Philosophy degree from Niagara University, where she was a charter member of Delta Epsilon Sigma. She did post-doctoral work at Catholic University, Columbia University and Oxford University.

Studying, teaching, writing for educational and literary journals, and working in administrative capacities, Sister Georgia brought to each endeavor a vision of serving in ways designed to help create a better world.

Plato said: "those having torches will pass them on to others." Sister Georgia, as she passed her torch to all with whom she came in contact during many years on the Niagara Frontier and at Rosary Hill, truly "affected eternity." Even though she is no longer with us, who can foresee where her influence will stop?

EARLY SPRING

Much talking has depressed my heart of late;
So many die, for they are consecrate.

The weeping willow wet in dawn's gray cold
Wears now a veil of pale silk yellow gold;

Around, the trees are wrapped in soft green mist,
Below the halting shadow's amethyst

Gives way to morning's first low level rays.
First, winter's death. Then wonder of springdays!

The flicker shakes his shrill arched tremolo,
The husky robin answers from below,

From perfumed earth, the soft bright grass in springing,
Ah! after this, come death, we meet it singing.

'Nut makes it to the top.

A time it was and
 what a time it was,
 It was a time of innocence
 A time of confidences.
 Long ago, it must be,
 I have a photograph.
 Preserve your memories,
 They're all that's left you.

—Paul Simon

A friend is one to whom one may pour out all the contents of one's heart, chaff and grain
together, knowing that the gentlest of hands
will take and sift it, keep what is worth keeping and with the breath of kindness blow
the rest away.

Summit 1976

Summit '76 is the result of months of preparation by a number of people, but without Tommy Rowan it would not have been possible. Tommy is responsible for a great deal of our pictures — the cover and dividers in particular — and an immeasurable amount of advice. I would like to thank him for making this book possible.

The number for Crisis Intervention is . . .

Talk about candy from strangers!

On Valentines Day 1975, Brian Wettlaufer, Mark Kawaler, Randy Gerlach, and Robin Gabner made an attempt to break the record in the Guinness Book of World Records for marathon ping-pong playing. The attempt went for naught. The following is an editorial from a local newspaper:

We hope the person who made that sick call to Mark Kawaler, one of four young people trying to beat the record for continuous table tennis play at Rosary Hill College is happy with himself — now that his scheme to disrupt the championship try was successful.

Some wag called Kawaler during the play to inform him that his parents had been killed in an auto accident. Needless to say, the call so upset him he was unable to continue the play, and the championship try went for naught after more than 37 hours of continuous play. The quartet had been aiming for 60 hours, which is the record.

No, no, it's the one on top that's empty!

No gold medals here.

The year 1975 proved to be a winning season for the RHC Football team and coach Johanna Coleman. It was the potent offensive and destructive defensive lines which led the team to a 8 and 2 record and a strong second place showing in the standings. In the final game of the season — RHC vs. Medaille — after a strong defensive fight, RHC lost the championship in the final moments.

The 1975-76 Basketball Season has been a sort of new beginning for both the Men's and Women's basketball teams. Both teams have acquired new and excellent coaches, new ideas and a sense of determination to make athletics an important part of the R.H.C. experience. This past season has been seen as the building year for both teams and expectations are high for both teams as well as the whole athletic program in the future. Although academics will always be the main goal of the college, it has been recognized that athletics also has been important to the whole college experience.

Old Dorm Life

1959—No food may be kept or eaten in the rooms.

There is to be no drinking if the student is returning to campus.

Room checks will take place on weekday mornings and Thursday nights.

Pajamas may be worn in the lounges only with special permission.

Resident students will now dress up for Sunday dinner.

Girls are allowed to visit the other dorms at night only if they are accompanied by at least two other girls.

There are to be no regulations concerning sleeping during the day. As long as the girls room is in order, it is allowed.

1961—Venetian blinds should be down after dinner.

Study hours are from 8 to 10 pm. Washers, dryers and hair dryers are not to be used.

Sneakers may be worn to brunch on Saturday mornings.

The Head Resident and the Council President may give permission for anyone to leave the dormitory in slacks or bermudas.

No shouting out of dorm windows. No smoking.

Freshmen must have their lights out at 11:00 pm.

Girls are to limit calls to 15 minutes.

Typical male attire.

Buffalo, Miami of the North!

Nite on the town.

Hoover on High!

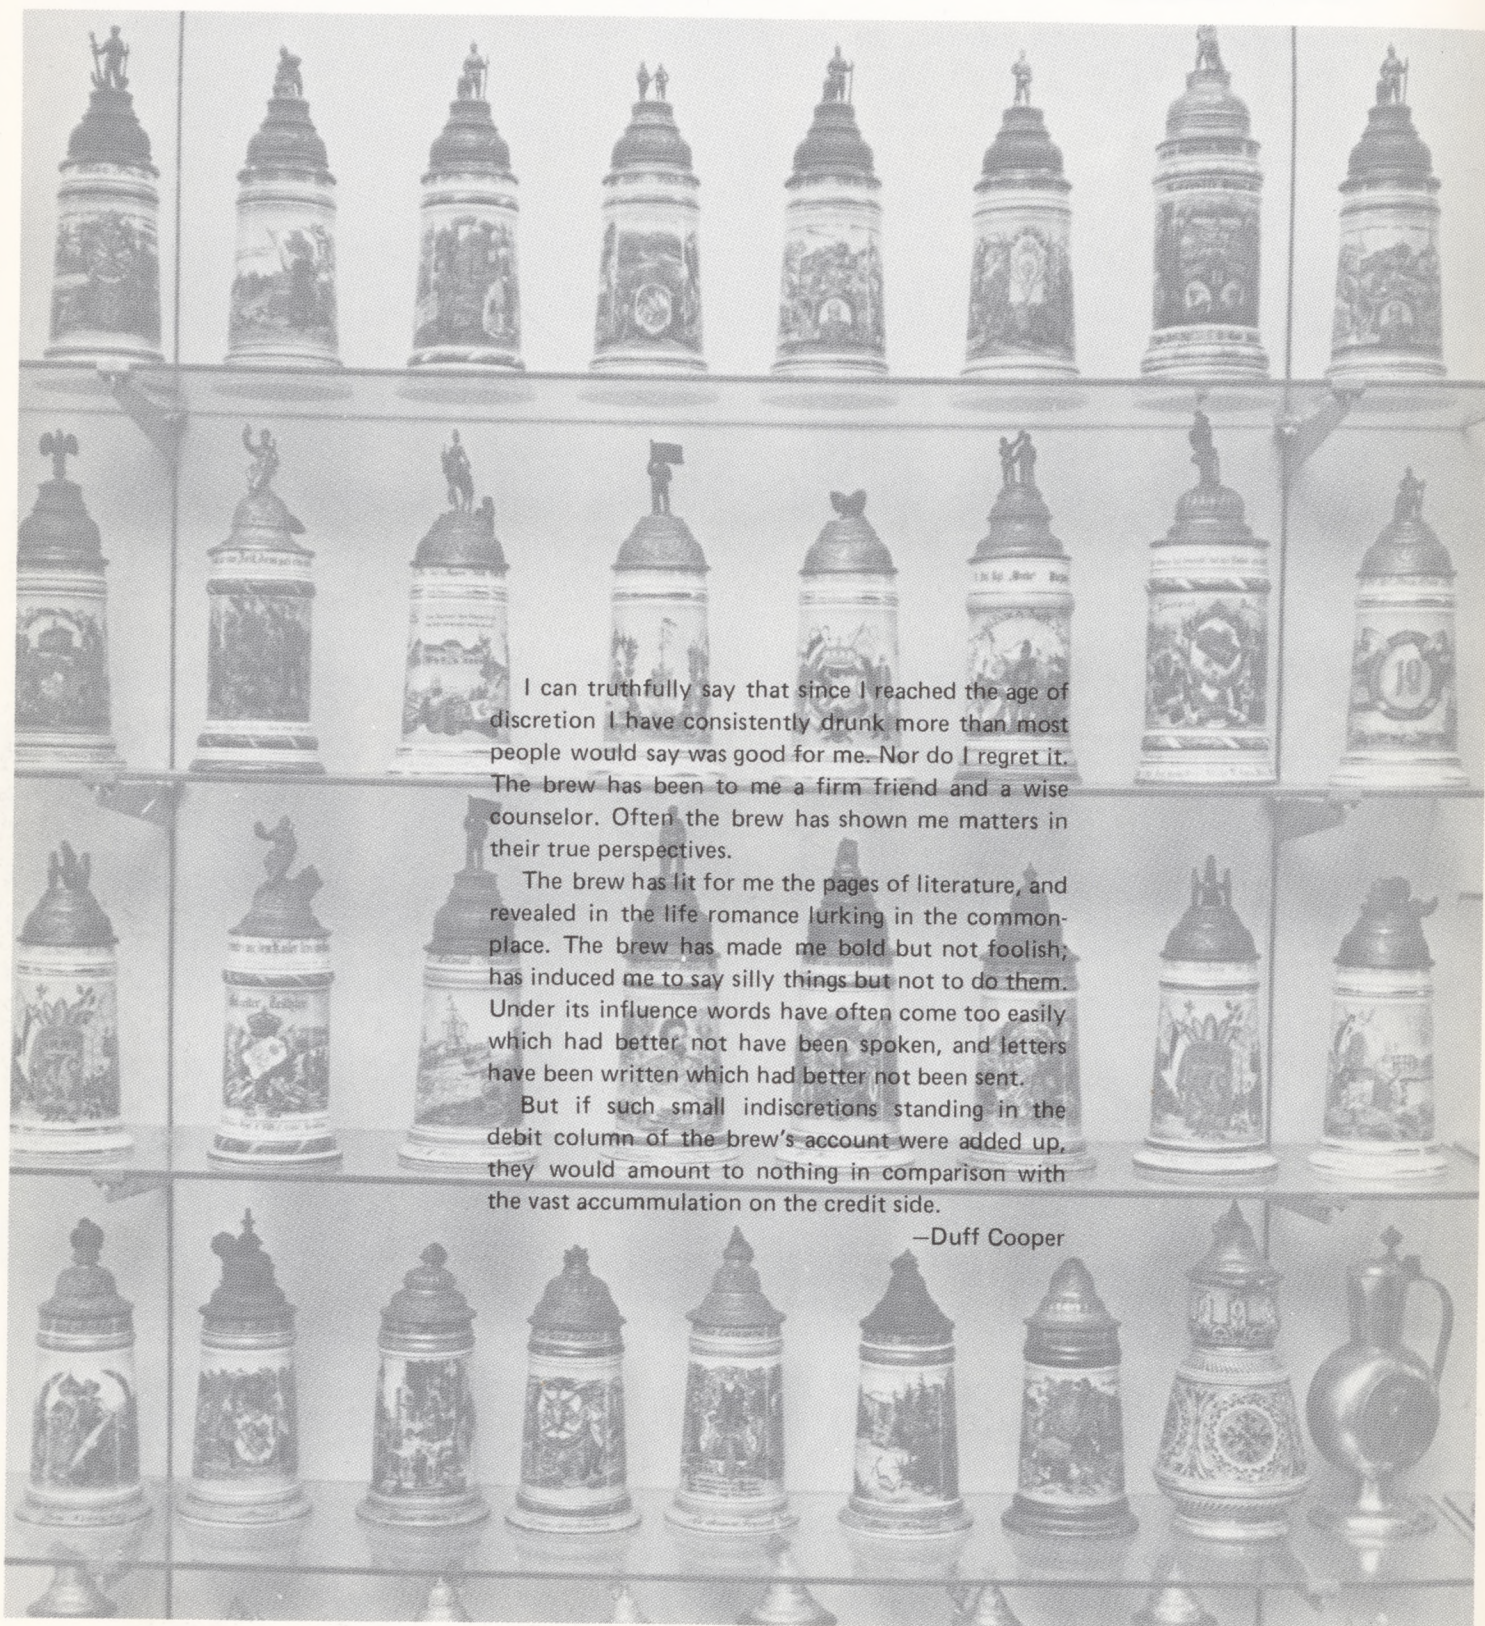

I knew I felt a draft.

I can truthfully say that since I reached the age of discretion I have consistently drunk more than most people would say was good for me. Nor do I regret it. The brew has been to me a firm friend and a wise counselor. Often the brew has shown me matters in their true perspectives.

The brew has lit for me the pages of literature, and revealed in the life romance lurking in the commonplace. The brew has made me bold but not foolish; has induced me to say silly things but not to do them. Under its influence words have often come too easily which had better not have been spoken, and letters have been written which had better not been sent.

But if such small indiscretions standing in the debit column of the brew's account were added up, they would amount to nothing in comparison with the vast accumulation on the credit side.

Draw me another.

Puppy love

Sometimes it's a Witches Brew.

The important thing is this: to be able at any moment to sacrifice what we are for what we could become.

Moose what?

Here comes Lamont's valentines!

Don't walk in front of me — I may not follow
Don't walk behind me — I may not lead
Walk beside me — and just be my friend.
—Camus

Then I said "its only money" and boy did they get mad!

What are you doing after the library?

I put my foot in it again!

Give a Friend a hand.

Crazy Nancy

We've both had our share of bad luck.

Happy are those who dream dreams and are ready to pay the price to make them come true.

— L. J. Cardinal Suenens

May the roads rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back,
May the sunshine warm upon your face,
May the rains fall soft upon your fields,
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the hollow of his hand,
